So it was resolved in the affirmative, and the bill was therefore passed.

Mr. Samuel R. Smith, who had, by leave of the house, been sometime absent, again appeared and resumed his seat.

On motion by Mr. Winchester, the bill reported by him, entitled, A further additional supplement to the act, entitled, An act concerning crimes and punishments, was taken up for consideration, and read the second time.

Mr. Edward Hughes moved, that the further consideration of said bill be referred to the first day of October next.

The question thereon was taken, and determined in the negative.

Mr. Richard Thomas moved to withdraw the bill from the hands of the speaker for the purpose of amending it.

The question thereon was taken, and decided in the negative.
